Conclusions
- New system covers 99 percent of existing riders, 99 percent of existing population, and 97 percent of existing employment
- Average travel times improve by 23-27 percent
- Corridor based service added to four new corridors
- 55 percent more people exposed to 30 minute or better service (in Alternative A)